target audience
This program is appropriate for personnel who are required to perform a road crash rescue within an emergency response team.

course overview
The industry road crash rescue course gives the participant the knowledge and skills to undertake road crash rescue operations as a member of a rescue team. The program has been developed specifically for emergency response team members to manage road crash rescue efficiently and safely within their particular environment.

This course includes:
• Scene assessment
• Scene preparation
• Scene management
• Vehicle stabilisation techniques
• Management of dangers and hazards
• Infection control procedures
• Casualty protection including safe removal from entrapment
• Road crash rescue techniques
• Cutting techniques
• Safe and effective use of equipment
• Scene preservation

certification
This is an accredited training program. Upon successful completion of the program participants will receive a nationally recognised Statement of Attainment in the following competency:

PUASAR024A  Undertake road crash rescue

prerequisites
The following competencies are prerequisites and must be achieved prior to participating in this program. Participants must provide proof of certification.

PUAEME002C  Manage injuries at emergency incident
OR

HLTFA311A  Apply first aid

PUASAR022A  Participate in a rescue operation

To attend this course participants will need the language, literacy and physical skills to:
• Read and interpret a range of written information
• Complete relevant documentation
• Interpret and use verbal and visual communication
• Perform complex road crash rescue operations

attendance
There are a maximum number of 12 participants per course.

duration
40 hours (separated into 4 or 5 day program)

location & delivery
Training courses can be conducted at one of the Queensland Fire and Emergency Services purpose built facilities or at your own premises (if suitable).

additional information
To ensure safety of participants, everyone involved in training must be of good health.

A minimum dress standard of long sleeve shirts, long trousers and enclosed footwear applies.

All participants must complete a QFES-TEM Medical Indemnity Form before training commences.

Additional Costs may be added at the time of invoicing, including:
• Car consumables will incur an extra charge
• A 15% surcharge may apply if training is delivered outside normal business hours (Mon-Fri 7:30am – 5:30pm)
• An additional per participant rate may be charged if more than 12 participants attend a program (contact QFES-TEM for current rate).
• A charge covering travel and accommodation if the trainer needs to travel from a major centre

For more information contact Queensland Fire and Emergency Services - Training and Emergency Management on 1300 650 028 or email tem@qfes.qld.gov.au